

HIGH LITTLETON MARRIAGES and BANNS 1599-1957 & INDEX

The first Parish Register for High Littleton, covering the period up to 1653, has long since disappeared. Bishop's Transcripts (B/T's), from which the following early marriages have been extracted, exist for only 13 years between 1599 and 1653. Additional information from licences is shown in italics in square brackets.

REGISTER

The earliest surviving Register begins in 1653 but the first page is so worn and soiled that nothing can be deciphered. During the Commonwealth period marriages were performed by a Civil Registrar (Register) after thrice publishing notice of the intention. The entries in the Register are in two parts, thus:

The intention of marriage between X and Y was published in the Parish Church of High Littleton three separate Lord's days, viz. the -- of -- and the -- of -- and the -- of --, according to the Act of Parliament in that behalf made."

"The above named X and Y were married on the -- of -- 16--."

NEW REGISTER

This is a separate Register Book, maintained in accordance with Hardwicke's Marriage Act, but without preprinted and numbered forms. Entries for banns and marriages are combined and hand numbered. In this transcription all relevant information has been extracted from both the banns and marriage entries and repetition ignored. Unless otherwise stated, Banns were called by the Minister who later officiated at the wedding.

HIGH LITTLETON MARRIAGES and BANNS 1599-1957 & INDEX

Banns included in this index are shown with "&" between the parties' names and the year in which the last banns were called. Some intended marriages did not take place.

For the purposes of this index the spelling of surnames has been standardised, although the actual spelling is shown in the details. Years prior to 1752 have been shown in modern style.

* indicates that someone has been indexed under two surnames.
