

HIGH LITTLETON SCHOOL ADMISSION REGISTER

The 1874 Register was rather imperfectly kept, especially in the earlier years. The most common errors and omissions were as follows:-

1. Dates of Admission or Readmission were sometimes incomplete.
2. Full names of children were often not given and for certain periods surnames appear under christian names and vice versa.
3. The Baptism column was frequently left blank and, when it was used, never contained a date, only the words yes or no.
4. Parents' or guardians' names were sometimes omitted and after a time only christian names were shown, surnames being omitted. Addresses and occupations were not always shown.
5. The column for Exemption from Religious Knowledge was often left blank.
6. Birthdates were sometimes omitted or approximate dates only given and few were verified with Birth Certificates. In some cases, where children were readmitted, there are minor discrepancies in the birthdate between the two entries. In comparing birthdays with those shown in the Parish and Methodist Baptism Registers, quite a few differences have been found.
7. Details of last school and standard reached were often omitted.
8. Standards achieved in this school were frequently not recorded.
9. Dates of leaving are often incomplete or omitted altogether.
10. The same registration number was not always used when a child was readmitted.
11. There are many spelling variations - some names like SALVAGE were spelt 4 different ways. In a few cases the surname of the child and parent was spelt differently in the same entry. Some place-names like Rotcombe were regularly spelt Rocktom, Rodcombe or Ratcombe.
12. The index at the front of the Admission Register was not entered up consistently and abandoned altogether after a time.

In the back of the Register was a separate Night School Register. This was also started in 1874, the first entries being dated 19th October. After only 39 entries, the last being on 9th November 1874, the Register was discontinued. Apart from name and date of admission, few of the columns were completed.

One should note that, in transcribing and indexing the Registers:

1. Original spelling of words has been retained.
2. There were a few pencil additions and corrections to the Registers, which have been treated as part of the original entries.
3. There were several examples of consecutively entered pupils having identical birthdays, which makes one suspect that one of the dates might be wrong.
4. Where pupils left and were subsequently readmitted, it has been highlighted in italics. Where a new registration number was issued, the former number has been shown in brackets after the child's name on readmission.

"Extracts from Instructions on the Method of keeping School Registers issued by the Committee of Council on Education."

July, 1873.

Their Lordships' Grants under the New Code depend so materially upon the accuracy of the Returns made by the Managers of Schools, that it is absolutely necessary to require the Registers of every School to be so kept that the attendance and progress of individual Scholars may be tested with ease and certainty.

The Code requires that before any Grant is made to a School the Education Department must be satisfied that Registers of Admission and Daily Attendance are accurately kept, and may be accepted as trustworthy (Article 17h.)

Again, under Article 32b, the Grant may be reduced by not less than one-tenth nor more than five-tenths upon the Inspector's Report for faults of Registration.

In every School there should be

- (1) A register of admission, progress, and withdrawal.
- (2) Registers of daily attendance for all Scholars.
- (3) A book of summaries.

These Registers must (Article 34) be provided by the Managers out of the funds of the School, so as to be the property of the school, and not in any sense of the Teacher.

ADMISSION REGISTER.

The Admission Register should be kept exclusively by the Head Teacher, and made up at least once a week. Successive numbers should be allotted to the children on their admission, so that each child may have its own number, which it should retain throughout its school career. A child who returns to school after an absence of any duration, would resume its original admission number.

This Register should show distinctly for each child in the School,

- (a) Its number on the Register.
- (b) The date of its admission or re-admission, day, month and year.
- (c) Name in full, christian and surname.
- (d) The name and address of its parent, or guardian.
- (e) Whether exemption from religious instruction is claimed.
- * (f) The exact date of the child's birth, day, month and year.
- * (g) The last School (if any) which it attended before entering this School.
- * (h) The highest standard in which it was there presented.
- (i) The Successive Standards in which presented in this School.
- (k) The date of leaving.

Where several children of the same name attend, they may be distinguished thus: "John Jones (a)," "John Jones (b)," etc.

This Register should have an Alphabetic Index.

* Special care must be taken to obtain exact information on these points from the Parents, former Teachers, and Registrar of Births, if necessary.
