

HIGH LITTLETON CHURCH RATES 1755/6 to 1773/4 (with gaps)

CHURCH RATES

The office of Church Warden is very ancient and goes back to at least 1127. The Church Wardens were the chief lay officers of the parish and were elected annually in Easter week by the Minister and Parishioners.

Amongst their many duties Church Wardens had the responsibility for caring for the structure and fabric of the Church, the furnishings and contents, the bells and the Churchyard. Housekeeping duties such as paying the clerk, purchasing the communion bread and wine, washing the surplice, providing prayer candles and prayer books etc. were also the responsibility of the Church Wardens. Another duty was the payment of bounty to parishioners for catching vermin such as polecats, hedgehogs and sparrows.

All these things cost money and to raise the necessary funds the Church Wardens were empowered to make a Church Rate. It was normal to use the same basis of assessment as that used for the Poor Rate, the only difference being that, whilst the impropiators of tithes were liable to Poor Rates, they did not pay Church Rates on their tithes. The basic assessments remained constant for around a hundred years, Rates being levied as a multiplier of the basic assessment.

High Littleton Church Rate assessments only survive for a few years. The assessments, which total 15s.11d. each year, show the names of proprietors (including copyholders) of land, a description of the premises or former proprietor (but not in every case) and the amount of the assessment.

Whilst comparatively few Church Rate assessments survive, the same names appear again in the Poor Rate assessments, of which many more survive. One should therefore examine both if one is trying to follow the ownership of property over a period of years. As an aid, a note (in italics) has been made of the changes in the rates lists from year to year and, where known, the reason therefore.

In transcribing the Church Rate assessments, the order has been rearranged, so as to place proprietors' names in alphabetical order.

Michael L. Browning
